We'll Bring the World His Truth – Song Story

James and Henry have been neighbors and best friends since they were just toddlers. They spent countless days playing together, swapping stories, and even helping each other to make the right choices. They felt as close to each other as brothers. Henry often joked that they were almost twins as their birthdays were just 8 days apart!

(Sing) We have been born as Nephi of old, to goodly parents who love the Lord.

Today was an exciting day for James and Henry – both boys had turned 8 the month before and would be getting baptized! They would soon be heading over to the church for the big celebration. It was fun for them to be sharing this big and important day with each other. They knew that getting baptized was an important commandment and they wanted to follow the Savior's example.

(Sing) We have been taught, and we understand, that we must do as the Lord commands.

James had invited their friend Sarah to come to the baptism. The boys hoped that she would be able to come today. Sarah had asked them about church a couple of times before but hadn't been able to come to Primary with them yet. James really wanted to share with Sarah the way he felt when he was making right choices and thought she would be able to feel the Spirit if she came to the baptism.

(Sing) We have been saved for these latter days, to build the kingdom in righteous ways.

It was finally time! The families loaded up into the car and made their way to the church building. All the preparations had been made and James and Henry helped their moms to set up pictures that were brought from home and pass out flyers to the guests that attended. Just a few minutes before it was time to start, James saw Sarah and her dad come into the building! He was so excited to see his friend and invited Sarah and her dad to sit by his family.

(Sing) We hear the words our prophet declares: "Let each who's worthy go forth and share."

Henry would be getting baptized first and James beamed with pride watching his best friend as he went under the water. He couldn't believe his turn was next! He quickly scanned the crowd – sure enough Sarah was sitting up front smiling at him. She looked happy and a little curious, too. James thought of the 2,000 Stripling Warriors and how they were valiant, brave and honest. He wanted to be like them and have the courage to always do what is right.

(Sing) We are as the army of Helaman. We have been taught in our youth.

As James came up out of the water, he beamed with pride! He felt clean and whole and was very grateful for the gospel in his life. He wanted to do everything he could do to share the way he was feeling with everyone he knew. He resolved to continue to choose the right and felt like he has just put on spiritual armor to help protect him from the world.

(Sing) We will be the Lord's missionaries to bring the world his truth.

After the service, Sarah rushed over to James and gave him a big hug. She thanked him for inviting her to the baptism. Sarah asked if James always felt this good inside, the way she felt today. She wanted to come to Primary with him soon. (Bear testimony on missionary work).
